

SOCIAL ART AWARD 2017 - CALL FOR ENTRIES

Deadline: March 31, 2017

www.social-art-award.org

The Institute for Art and Innovation e.V. invites artists and cultural actors of all areas to apply with their work to the Social Art Award 2017.

SOCIAL ART AND THE AWARD'S PURPOSE

Social Art is any artistic expression that aims at creating social impact and change. Artists are visionaries, utopists, agents for change, with the ability to affect society by creating emotionally captivating experiences. Thus, the goal of the Social Art Award is to invigorate the rise of social art. The award aims at strengthening the recognition of social artists and the value of their work. Because we need more people to create impact and to inspire change. Hence, the Award cherishes the importance of social art for society.

What's in for you?

1.000 Euro in prize money.

An exhibition in Berlin, Germany.

All applicants receive 2 printed copies, plus the digital version of the Social Art book.

Who can apply?

All artists and cultural actors can apply. There are no restrictions based on gender, training or nationality.

How to apply?

Submit your contribution with one image, a short description and a statement, how your work is related to social art.

THE SELECTION PROCESS

The jury identifies the best contributions through a three-stage selection process including a shortlist of 10 nominees plus 2 wild cards based on public online voting.

THE INSTITUTE

The Institute for Art and Innovation e.V. is a multidisciplinary institute that explores and promotes art and innovation as a means to foster social impact and change. The Institute is an independent, not-for-profit, non-governmental organization based in Berlin, Germany.

For more information and guidelines please visit <http://www.social-art-award.org>